

Sermon Review | Sunday, March 22

Press On: A Certain Promise for an Uncertain Time | Philippians 1:1-6

Use this review as a means for digging deeper into these verses and growing in your understanding of God's Word this week.

Here's a few tips:

- Grab your Study Bible and a pen.
- Print this page out, or write your answers in your own journal.
- Take your time to answer these questions thoughtfully.
- Share your answers with your spouse, family, or a friend.

Begin by reading Philippians 3:14, our theme verse for this sermon series.

Why was Paul so determined to "press on" even while in prison?

Now read our main text from this week, Philippians 1:1-6.

Paul says he is filled with joy when he prays for the Philippians because of their partnership in the gospel. In your own words, what is the gospel?

How should our partnership in the gospel as a church family bring joy to our hearts? Especially in a time like we're in now?

Read verse 6 again.

What is Jesus bringing to completion in all of his followers?

Knowing that Jesus will never give up on you and is always working in you — how does this encourage you right now in the midst of these uncertain times?

What is one specific thing you think God wants to teach you through this uncertain season?

What does this passage teach you about the character of God?

Pray and ask God to help you be an encouragement to someone else this week. Look for some way to share the joy of Christ with a neighbor.
